

At the eighth-grade level, students will learn to apply interviewing techniques. Preparation for and evaluation of the process of interviewing will be a part of student learning. Interviewing skills will be added to the students' repertoire of oral language skills. In addition, students will analyze, develop, and produce creative and informational media messages.

- 8.1 The student will use interviewing techniques to gain information.
 - a) Prepare and ask relevant questions for the interview.
 - b) Make notes of responses.
 - c) Compile, accurately report, and publish responses.
 - d) Evaluate the effectiveness of the interview.

At the eighth-grade level, students will apply knowledge of word origins, analogies, and figurative language to understand unfamiliar or new words encountered in authentic texts. They will continue to develop appreciation of literature through the study of literary elements in classic and contemporary selections. They will describe themes and inferred main ideas, interpret cause-effect relationships, and draw conclusions from a variety of literary and informational selections. Students will build on the foundations for literacy developed in the previous grades. When selecting texts, teachers will consider appropriateness of subject and theme as well as text complexity. Students will apply critical reading and reasoning skills across the content areas, including history and social science, science, and mathematics.

 The intent of this standard is that students will collect resources, evaluate their usefulness, conduct research, and appropriately cite reliable sources of information. Students will evaluate the accuracy and authenticity of multiple sources. Students will evaluate the intent of the author, which may include misinformation, bias, and unsupported assertions. 	All students should determine if a source is trustworthy and accurate. understand that using multiple sources of information produces a more complete understanding of a topic.	 To be successful with this standard, students are expected to understand that a primary source is an original document or a firsthand or eyewitness account of an event. understand that a secondary source discusses information originally presented somewhere else. Secondary sources provide analysis, interpretation, or evaluation of the original information. use a variety of strategies to generate notes, and determine the central ideas of a primary or secondary source, synthesize information, and provide an accurate summary. embed quotations from other sources with skill and accuracy. evaluate the validity and authenticity of texts, using questions such as: Does the source appear in a reputable publication? Is the source free from bias? Does the writer have something to gain from his opinion? Does the information contain facts for support? Is the same information found in more than one source? conduct short research projects to answer a question drawing on several sources and generating questions.

	• use computer technology to research, organize, evaluate, and communicate information.
	• document using a standard form such as MLA or APA.
	 avoid plagiarism, give credit whenever using another person's idea or opinion, facts, statistics, graphs, drawings, quotations, or paraphrases of another person's words.
